OUR NICKEL WEALTH.

There is now growing up a strong agitation in favor of putting a strong high export duty on nickel ore and "nuggets," which is a small reduction of the rough nickel ore as it is mined. It is well known that near Saultury, in this Province, one of the most extensive and valuable nickel ore beds of the world exists. Indeed it is only in New Caledonia, under French dominion, that any other bed of much importance has ever been found. Nearly all our nickel has been exported from Canada in its crude state and nearly all the profits of refining and working it are reaped in the United States. In that country our model ore is allowed to go to waste and our people are open up more satisfactorily than usual this Spring. The New Prints are very pretty. You will like them. The Colored Dress Goods are very fine, about anything we have handled before. Take a look at them. We pay special attention to this line.
